Jagen und Fischen 2012

Countries far away from Augsburg tempt with hunting and holiday fever

Many hunters and anglers dream of leaving the everyday life and joining the wildlife to experience the nature and hunting. This desire can be fulfilled at the enormous travel market of the Jagen und Fischen in Augsburg from 19th to 22th January 2012.

In the Off-Road area new Subaru and Suzuki models lure with more convenience as well as ...

New big-game shooting offers in Africa appear at the Jagen und Fischen in Augsburg for the first time in Germany.

Stormberg Elangeni Safaris is one of them and he promises individual hunting adventures with seven family-run private-lodges. In Addition to the hunting with rifles and bows there are fascinating alternative options for the fellow passengers like bird watching, horse-riding, fly fishing or camera trips. Therefore the travel will be an extraordinary experience.

The Alaska Bavaria Lodge promise travels of a lifetime. Already in a one week trip you can fish a red salmon, king salmon or a halibut because of the perfectly organized program and experienced guides. Or you enjoy the Indian summer in Alaska with strong silver salmons as well as bear watching.

Newfoundland and Labrador show further spectacular destinations. The coastal and lake scenery on the Atlantic in the east of Canada offers a great fish and bird nature.

Experiencing icebergs, whales and an unspoiled countryside: That can be a nice hunting and angling trip or a breathtaking family holiday.

Also Ireland is new to the travel market of the Jagen und Fischen 2012. It offers crystal clear creeks, lots of lakes and spectacular coast sceneries.

All those destinations are perfectly topped off with lectures of Prof. Harold C. Lyon, Jr, (known from his book "Angling in the Smile of the Great Spirit") and the predacious fish specialist Torsten Ahrens, who reports multimedia and vital about the hunt for the Blue Marlin and the unbelievable species-rich fishing areas in Norway.

Hunting and angling in Newfoundland is described by Prof. Harold C. Lyon, Jr, who talks about fascinating experiences like the rescue of a moose out of the freezing cold water. Newfoundland and Labrador lure as well with black bears and woodland-caribous.

Furthermore the "Jägervereinigung Augsburg e.V." and the "Jägerinnenforum (Landesjagdverband Bayern e.V.)" invites to a special exhibition that informs about the upland moor and mountain game hunt. A realistic hunting experience can be gained in the shooting cinema with more than 30 seats.

Hunters searching for a faithful partner with four paws have the choice between nearly 30 hunting dog races that show their skills and abilities on the stage.

Listen to the beat of the wings in our bird of prey-air show. The fascinating show will thrill everybody and is an essential item on the program at the Jagen und Fischen in Augsburg.

The stage program provides even more variety with fashion shows, competitions on calling and a culinary show kitchen by famed chefs that cook game and fish dishes.
